Barkin Denied $32,800 German Living Costs

Nephew of "Silent Smith" Given Verdict in Note Suit

Justice Giegerich yesterday decided in favor of the defendant in a suit brought by Samuel Barkin to recover Signature of Samuel Barkin to recover $32,800 from George Pratt Smith, nephew of the late James Henry Smith, known as "Silent Smith." Barkin claimed the mone, on notes which he said were made by either George Pratt Smith or his agents, for which the lender received assignments of part of Smith's $500,000 legacy from his uncle.

Barkin said he received only $500. Smith contended that five of the notes in the possession of Smith, aggregating $19,900, were forged and that he had no knowledge of them. Smith said he did not learn of the existence of the notes until a Bnort time before he became thirty years of age in December, 1919, when he acquired the legacy left him by his uncle.

Meyer Fears U. S. Must Finance Work on Farms

Predicament Is Serious

Fredicament is Serious
Farmers will find it hard to finance the planting and harvesting of this rear's crops without assistance from the government, declared Eugene Meyer r., former managing director of the Var Finance Corporation, in an adtress last night at the sixteenth annual dinner of the Kansas Society of New York at the Hotel McAlpin.

The predicament of the farmers was erious, he said, owing to the suffering there is a surfeit of agricultural prod-ucts in America."

"Our resources are matchess, but we need more courage, more intelligence, more organization," the speaker declared, asserting government organizations—such as the dissolved finance corporation—must be built up to prevent future breakdowns. He blamed Secretary of the Treasury Glass's policy of "inaction" for much of the abnormal rural conditions.
